

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Technical United is a rapidly growing niche company with an ambitious nature to compete with the biggest and best companies in the industry.

If you are in search for a career opportunity as opposed to a mere job, we are looking for the most talented individuals to become part of our specialized team.

We recognise the importance of the human element as it translates to future growth and prosperity; therefore we offer competitive starting packages with benefits and on-the-job development programs.

Thank you for your interest in becoming part of the Technical United. Please send your resume to: career@technicalunited.com
